

Young ESPGHAN Day

Young ESPGHAN Day 2025 – 14 May 2025, Helsinki

We are delighted to invite you to join us for our 2025 “Young ESPGHAN Day”, a day full of workshops and inspiring talks, all tailored and dedicated to us, Young ESPGHAN.

As a committee, we are devoted to promoting education and improving training among ESPGHAN members by addressing training inequalities across different national systems. We believe leadership positions are inevitably a milestone in everyone’s career, and learning from inspiring role models would bring you all new insights into your potential as the next generation of leaders.

We are hoping that “Young ESPGHAN Day” will provide you, our colleagues, the opportunity to find inspiration and resources to explore your career potential and expand your horizons.

Target Audience: Young ESPGHAN Members, Medical students, General paediatricians, GI trainees, AHPs with interest in research.

Objectives:

- Gain a basic understanding of statistics for non-statisticians
- Learn the fundamentals of systematic review and meta-analysis techniques
- Identify the importance of peer review in your daily practice and career progression
- A step-by-step guide on reviewing a manuscript from experienced reviewers with online and face-to-face

modules

- Receive feedback and practical guidance from experts through hands-on practice
